

Polo Johnny takes Steamin Demon final at Scioto

Polo Johnny won the final of the Steamin Demon series at Scioto Downs on Friday night, edging Cruzen Fora Bruzen by a neck in 1:54.4.

Cruzen For a Bruzen was sent off as the second choice at 4-1 odds and he led from the start into the homestretch. That's when driver Sam "Chip" Noble asked the 3-5 favorite Polo Johnny for a rally and the two pacers fought it out to the wire. Firms Randsome finished a length back in third.

Polo Johnny is owned by Jerry Kutschbach of Chillicothe and is trained by Jeff Amann. It was his fourth win in six starts in 2008 and he added $3,300 to his seasonal bank account. The 4-year-old pacing gelding had not raced prior to this season.

The victory also gave Polo Johnny and his connections a measure of revenge for his upset last week by Cruzen Fora Bruzen.

For driver Noble, Polo Johnny's win was part of a driving triple as he swept the eighth, ninth, and tenth race in a row.